President's Message

As the 2009-10 ski season slowly moves toward its final run, there are other things brewing for the Castro Valley Ski Club. Look through these pages, get out your calendar and save the dates for some special events. With the melting of the snow and the shut down of ski resorts comes our End of Season Banquet at the beautiful Sequoyah Country Club and a five star dinner with all the trimmings, an evening of dancing and socializing you don't want to miss. Mark the date---April 24.

Right around the corner (June 10-13 for more fun stuff) comes the "Thanks for the Memories" Far West Ski Association annual convention in Indian Wells, CA, right around the corner from Palm Springs and Bob Hope Country. If you have never attended one of these conventions you should consider the opportunity. Fabulous ski resort packages auctioned at bargain prices, getting a heads up on the activities and awards presented by FWSA, a gala evening with dinner and dancing to a live band. Explore the desert scene, etc., etc., etc. Get your reservations made at the The Renaissance Esmeralda Resort and Spa. Make those reservations by May 21 to get the special group rates.

Check out the Skizette calendar on page one. You'll find spring and summer fun galore. A Hawaiian Luau, July and August BBQ meetings at member's homes, the famous Vin et Cuisine ala Rubis, a unique Saturday breakfast in the park with Fun Fest outdoor games to follow, helping elders and shut-ins in the community with our 2nd annual "Make a Difference Day", a Halloween party at the haunted Green mansion and finishing out the year with our annual Christmas Party at the Sequoia Country Club. Who could ask for anything more?

It's time to get out there and make a great day for yourself and others who's paths you may cross. Share a smile. It's wonderfully contagious.

Ralph

Consider This...

Greetings! Last month I had the extreme good fortune to participate in the "Ability Ski Challenge" at Alpine Meadows. The experience left a deep impression on me that will not be forgotten. The good work of the DSUSA deserves our praise as well as our money. I am very proud of the CVSC membership for its continued commitment and support of this most worthy organization. Here is an excerpt from a BAC newsletter article written by Sandy Kiyomura who is a volunteer ski instructor for DSUSA and was also on the race team for the BAC:

This was another fundraiser for DSUSA in conjunction with their "Wounded Warriors" program. Twenty five veterans from Iraq participated in a week-long "on the hill" experience as guests of DSUSA and all their sponsors. Each team on the Ability Ski Challenge donated $1,000 to race. There were 22 teams. Dennis Heffley, BAC president invited Paula Kinahon, Bob Ellis, and me (Sandy Kiyomura) to be on the BAC team "We've Got Your BAC". We also had Jim Thweat, who is on the DSUSA board and races "three track", with one ski and 2 outriggers. Bob is an elite racer and did a terrific job. Paula also did well. Dennis and I had fun, even though we did miss the last gate. After the races, we had lunch and then a game of "Scrabble", where we went to different ski runs to collect alphabet letters for the giant Scrabble board. Winners of the races and Scrabble received very nice prizes.

One of our very own BAC clubs, Inskiers, won the Ability Challenge. This was quite impressive, as there were 22 teams (110 racers) and the best scores of the team members were added together. Way to go, Inskiers! BAC is proud of you.

Bay Area Snow Sports Council News

The Far West Ski Association 78th Annual Convention hosted by San Diego Council of Ski Club June 10 - 13, 2010 @ the Esmeralda Resort & Spa at Indian Wells, California. See convention flyer for more information on planned events and lodging.

The Council Man and Woman of the Year recognition dinner and competition is on deck for April 22nd at Don Jose's Mexican restaurant in Castro Valley. Winners of the competition will go on to represent the BAC at the Far West convention in June.

Nominations & elections for council officers, other than President, will take place at the general meeting Monday, April 12th. Elected positions include VP Membership, Travel Director, Secretary, VP Public Affairs, Treasurer, VP Communications, Benefits Director, and Industry Liaison. There are also several appointing positions up for consideration. For your information, CVSC is well represented at the council level:

Dave Cunningham – Industry Liaison; Sandy Kiyomura – Benefits Director; Dennie Warren – VP Communication; Jim Korn – BAC Director Editor; Paula Kinahon – Travel Director

Speaking of elections, CVSC nominations and elections are upon us with voting taking place at our April 21st general meeting – be there!

I look forward to seeing you at the April meetings. Meanwhile, I hope you're having fun – on and off the slopes.

Best regards,

Paula Kinahon

Since Averell Harriman and the Union Pacific Railway first put Sun Valley on the map in 1936, the things that make the area irresistible have remained essentially the same. The sun shines almost daily on this Old West setting. Locals still smile and are glad to give directions. And the valley continues to be a peaceful refuge for visitors year after year. Sun Valley boasts two fabulous mountains: Baldy, considered by serious skiers as one of the country's best ski mountains, and Dollar, a beginner's paradise with gentle, sunny slopes groomed to perfection. In the Old West town of Ketchum, just one mile down the road from the Sun Valley Resort, you'll find a lively community of shops, restaurants, night spots, art galleries and theater.

As of this newsletter we have 49 CV members signed up. Pat Green is the trip leader. Make sure you let her know what lodging you prefer, hotel room or condo and roommate preferences.

DSUSA Far West Ability Celebration

DSUSA was blessed with almost perfect weather for the 2010 Ability Celebration at Alpine Meadows on March 19th. The sky was clear, summit temperature overnight had gotten down to 14 degrees; and at the DSUSA welcome tent it was in the mid twenties at 8:30 Friday morning. BAC participants for this worthy event were Dennis Heffley, BAC President from Rusty Bindings Ski Club, Bob Ellis, from Bota Baggers, Sandy Kiyomura, BAC Benefits Director, and Paula Kinahon, BAC Director of Travel, both from Castro Valley Ski Club. The BAC Team, “We Got Your BAC” was joined by our DSUSA participant, Jim Thweatt, a Para-Olympic medal holder. This event was hosted by the Wounded Warriors/Veterans Only Division of DSUSA Far West; the donated proceeds will benefit their Learn-to-Ski Program. The Honorary Wounded Warrior for the Team was Marine, Casey Swig.

Bob Ellis, Dennis Heffley and Paula Kinahon in the DSUSA Welcome Tent before race start

The 'mob scene' at the top of Kangaroo

Race start time was set at 10:00am at the top of Kangaroo, where Alpine Meadows had laid out the GS race courses, red on the right and blue on the left; two racers would start together and charge down each course. Each racer was required to run both courses (two runs). Reckoning by bib numbers, over 110 racers participated in the event! And they were all at the top of Kangaroo as start time neared. Fortunately the DSUSA Alpine Meadows Ski School provided lots of course oversight to keep things moving pretty smoothly.

Racing started on time and went very smoothly. If it wasn't for appliances, one would not be able to distinguish the disabled skiers from the non-handicapped because the quality of the ski performances was outstanding. Out of 110 skiers there were only

4 DNFs! – usually the result of missing the last gate. Fastest course time was 25.33 sec. Our BAC Team averaged 40.79 sec – not bad.

The racing was finished by lunchtime. DSUSA hosted an après-ski party at the tent mid-afternoon where awards were presented and honors for Distinguished Wounded Warriors were celebrated over a generous buffet spread with all the trimmings.

Everybody had a blast! Reward yourself next year and plan to participate in this unique, fun and worthy event!

Spring skiing is here and I hope everyone is protecting their skin. Know how to select and apply a good sunscreen to protect your skin from sunburn and other skin damage. How do sunscreens work?

Sunscreen absorbs, reflects or scatters UV light. It's divided into three wavelength bands — ultraviolet A (UVA), ultraviolet B (UVB) and ultraviolet C (UVC). Only UVA and UVB rays reach the earth. Sunscreens provide either physical or chemical protection from UV light.

Physical sunscreens form an opaque film that reflects or scatters UV light before it can penetrate the skin. These sunscreens contain ingredients, such as zinc oxide and titanium dioxide, which protect against both UVA and UVB rays. Original formulations of physical sunscreens remained white when applied to the skin. Newer formulations blend more with your skin tone and are less noticeable.

Chemical sunscreens absorb UV rays before they can cause any damage. They contain one or more ingredients, such as avobenzone or oxybenzone, which absorb UVA or UVB rays. For broad protection, chemical sunscreens often contain more than one ingredient to protect against both UVA and UVB rays. A newer over-the-counter sunscreen contains mexoryl (Anthelios SX) and offers protection against both UVA and UVB radiation.

What reduces the effectiveness of sunscreen?

How much protection your sunscreen offers depends on many factors, including how likely your skin is to burn (your skin type), the amount and type of sunscreen used, how often the sunscreen is applied, and how intense the UV rays are.

In addition, many factors can make sunscreen less effective. These include:

- High humidity
  - Sweating
  - Drying or rubbing your skin with a towel
- Swimming, showers or other contact with water

SPF =Sun Protection Factor

In the United States the Sun Protection Factor of a product tells how long you may stay in the sun without burning from UVB light. SPF is only a sunburn meter allowing tanning with enough sun exposure. UVA light has not been formally tested to acquire a SPF rating but manufactures commonly include them in a broad screen sunblock. SPF means Sun Protection Factor using this equation.

Take the time you would normally burn in the sun without protection. Twenty minutes would normally produce redness on a light skinned individual. Multiply that number by the SPF factor of your product. Example: with an SPF 15 X's 20 minutes of sunburn time =  $15 \times 20 = 300$  tells how many minutes you may stay in the sun without burning. 300 minutes divided by a 1 hour of 60 minutes = 5 hours of sun protection without sunburn.

What should you look for when buying sunscreen?

Not all sunscreens are the same. Be sure to:

- Select a broad-spectrum sunscreen with an SPF of at least 15. Broad-spectrum products provide protection against both UVA and UVB radiation. Look on the ingredient labels for oxybenzone, sulisobenzene, avobenzone (Parsol 1789), ecamsule, titanium dioxide or zinc oxide.
- Watch for added ingredients that may irritate your skin. Some sunscreens contain fragrances, preservatives and other ingredients that cause skin reactions in some people. If you have sensitive skin, look for sunscreen that doesn't contain potential allergens, such as fragrances or dyes, and is specifically designed for your type of skin.
- Understand labels. Look for sunscreens labeled "water resistant," which offers some protection against washing off in water or when perspiring heavily. Sunscreens can no longer be labeled "waterproof" because all sunscreens wash off to some extent. Other terms that can no longer be used on sunscreen product labels include "sun block" (no product actually blocks all UV rays) and "all-day" (no sunscreen lasts all day).

Make sure any product you use actually contains sunscreen. Many tanning oils and lotions don't. Products that don't contain sunscreen are required by law to clearly indicate that on the label.

How much sunscreen is necessary, and how often should it be applied?

Most people use sunscreen too sparingly. A liberal application is 1 ounce (29 milliliters) — the amount in a shot glass — to cover all exposed parts of the body. If you have a 4-ounce (118-milliliter) bottle, you'll be using about one-fourth of it for one application. Be sure to rub the sunscreen in well. To maximize protection, apply sunscreen liberally 30 minutes before going outdoors and reapply every two hours, or sooner as needed.

Is sunscreen enough to protect your skin?

Though it offers some protection, no sunscreen blocks out all of the UV rays. Therefore, sunscreen shouldn't replace other protective measures, such as limiting the time you spend in the sun and covering your skin. For the most complete sun protection, use all three of these methods:

- Avoid the sun between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Because the sun's rays are strongest during these hours, try to schedule outdoor activities for other times of the day. Seek shade whenever possible. If you're unable to avoid being in the sun, limit the amount of time you're outdoors during these peak hours.
- Cover up. Wear tightly woven clothing that covers your arms and legs and a broad-brimmed hat, which provides more protection than does a baseball cap or golf visor. Also, consider wearing clothing or outdoor gear specially designed to provide sun protection.

Use sunscreen frequently and liberally. Apply sunscreen liberally 30 minutes before going outdoors and reapply about every two hours. Use it even on cloudy or hazy days. UV rays can penetrate cloud cover.
